

National broadcasting services, like KLOVE and Air-1 radio, serve a vital role when looking at the public interest. The use of LPFM stations to displace signals established by stations like these would remove this service from the public it serves. As you are deciding how to proceed with this issue, I hope you will consider and alternative to allowing these stations to be remove from the air in many cities across the country.